Confidentiality Disclaimer

You may choose whether to provide personal information online.

"Personally identifiable information" is information about a natural person that is readily identifiable to that specific individual. Personal information includes such things as an individual's name, address, and phone number. A domain name or Internet Protocol address is not considered personal information.

The City of Dallas does not sell or rent personally identifiable information. If personally identifiable information is requested on the City's website, or volunteered by the user (i.e., completing an online form), please be aware that when you provide such information to the City of Dallas that information may be subject to disclosure under the Texas Public Information Act, other state law, and applicable federal law.

The Texas Public Information Act (PIA) provides a process for citizens to request copies or inspection of government records maintained by the City. The PIA requires the disclosure of all records unless the information or record is specifically exempt from disclosure. For example, the PIA does not require the disclosure of social security numbers, home address, and home telephone numbers, except when disclosure is required by law. Note that an applicant's home address and telephone number are considered public information in response to an open records request. However, once an applicant becomes a board/commission member, the board/commission member may opt in/opt out of making the home address and telephone number available to the public. Other information may be privileged, confidential, or otherwise exempt from disclosure under applicable law. The City may be required to request a determination from the Office of Attorney General, Open Records Division, regarding the release of information.

Confidentiality Disclaimer

You may choose whether to provide personal information online.

"Personally identifiable information" is information about a natural person that is readily identifiable to that specific individual. Personal information includes such things as an individual's name, address, and phone number. A domain name or Internet Protocol address is not considered personal information.

The City of Dallas does not sell or rent personally identifiable information. If personally identifiable information is requested on the City's website, or volunteered by the user (i.e., completing an online form), please be aware that when you provide such information to the City of Dallas that information may be subject to disclosure under the Texas Public Information Act, other state law, and applicable federal law.

The Texas Public Information Act (PIA) provides a process for citizens to request copies or inspection of government records maintained by the City. The PIA requires the disclosure of all records unless the information or record is specifically exempt from disclosure. For example, the PIA does not require the disclosure of social security numbers, home address, and home telephone numbers, except when disclosure is required by law. Note that an applicant's home address and telephone number are considered public information in response to an open records request. However, once an applicant becomes a board/commission member, the board/commission member may opt in/opt out of making the home address and telephone number available to the public. Other information may be privileged, confidential, or otherwise exempt from disclosure under applicable law. The City may be required to request a determination from the Office of Attorney General, Open Records Division, regarding the release of information.

What experience do you have that qualifies you for service on this board? *

I served on the Dallas City Council between 2005 and 2013, and until redistricting in 2011, represented Love Field Airport and the surrounding neighborhoods. As a result of that service, I became educated on airport operations, budgets, and management, and was involved in negotiations to repeal the Wright Amendment. I also served on the City Council Transportation Committee which oversaw airport-related matters. Based on my council experience, I am comfortable with the responsibility of overseeing the management and budget of a large organization like DFW International Airport. In addition, as an attorney, I am accustomed to reviewing and assessing complex contracts and transactions.

Certain boards require some members to have special qualifications. If the board for which you are applying requires special qualifications, please list your qualifications meeting those requirements. *

November 16, 2011

WHEREAS, the Cities of Dallas and Fort Worth by Contract and Agreement dated April 15, 1968 (the "Contract"), provided for the construction and operation of Dallas-Fort Worth Regional Airport, subsequently renamed the Dallas-Fort Worth International Airport (the "Airport"), and continued, confirmed and established the Airport Board as its operating Board of Directors (the "Board"); and

WHEREAS, pursuant to City Council Resolution No. 76-1888, the duly elected Mayor of the City of Dallas is automatically appointed to fill Place 10; and

WHEREAS, the Dallas City Council is authorized to appoint six members to the Board (Place Nos. 1, 4, 5, 6, 9 and 11), with the terms for Places 1, 5 and 11 expiring on January 31st of odd-numbered years; and the terms for Places 4, 6 and 9 expire on January 31st of even-numbered years; and

WHEREAS, the City Council has determined that it is desirable to delineate the nomination, selection and appointment process for those members; NOW, THEREFORE

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF DALLAS:

SECTION 1. That, for each set of Board members to be appointed for terms to commence on February 1 of a particular year, by 5 pm on the third Friday in the preceding November each Councilmember and the Mayor may submit to the City Secretary's Office a memo with the names, supplemented by the 5 pm deadline with the biographical information or resume, of up to three individuals to be nominated for appointment or re-appointment to the D/FW International Airport Board; if a biography or resume is not received for a particular nominee by the 5 pm deadline on the third Friday in the preceding November, the nomination will be considered incomplete and the nominee will not be considered for review.

SECTION 2. That the Transportation and Environment Council Committee (TEC) shall select from the complete nominations submitted by Councilmembers and the Mayor six individuals to interview and by December 1 shall direct the City Secretary's Office to conduct background checks on the six selected individuals.

SECTION 3. That prior to the first Council agenda meeting in January the TEC shall interview the six individuals (to the extent they have been cleared by the City Secretary's Office) and shall select three of those individuals to recommend to the City Council for appointment to the Board.

SECTION 4. That upon selection of individuals to serve on the Board, the City Secretary's Office shall assign to each of those individuals one of the then-open Board places.

SECTION 5. That this resolution shall take effect immediately from and after its passage in accordance with the Charter of the City of Dallas, and it is accordingly so resolved.
