To: Campaign Treasurers of General-Purpose Committees Filing Monthly
From: Becky L. Levy, Director of the Disclosure Filings Division
Date: September 18, 2012
Subject: Filing Deadlines for the 2012 General Election

This notice is to remind you of upcoming reporting requirements in connection with the November 6, 2012, general election that may apply to you as the campaign treasurer of a general-purpose political committee filing under the monthly schedule. If you think you received this notice in error, you should contact our office immediately.

REPORT COVERING THE MONTH PRECEDING AN ELECTION. For a general-purpose political committee that files monthly reports, a report covering the month preceding an election in which the committee is involved must be received by the Texas Ethics Commission no later than the report due date. In other words, if the committee is involved in the November 6, 2012, general election, the report due November 5, 2012 (covering the month preceding the election), must be received by the due date to be considered timely filed.

SPECIAL PRE-ELECTION REPORT(S) IN CONNECTION WITH THE 2012 GENERAL ELECTION. The reporting period for filing a special pre-election report begins on Sunday, October 28, 2012, and ends at noon on Monday, November 5, 2012. The campaign treasurer of a general-purpose political committee that has selected monthly filing must file a special pre-election report if the committee accepts political contributions from a person that in the aggregate exceed $5,000 during the reporting period, or makes more than $1,000 in direct expenditures supporting or opposing a single candidate or more than $15,000 in direct expenditures supporting or opposing a group of candidates during the reporting period. A special pre-election report must be received by the first business day after the contribution is accepted or the expenditure is made. Therefore, you may be required to file more than one special pre-election report. A special pre-election report must be filed electronically, unless otherwise exempted from the electronic filing requirement. A special pre-election report of contributions that is exempt from the electronic filing requirement may be filed using the Form PAC-C (Special Pre-Election Report of Contributions). This form is at www.ethics.state.tx.us/forms/pac_C.pdf on our website. A special pre-election report of direct expenditures that is exempt from the electronic filing requirement may be filed using Form PAC-E (Special Pre-Election Report of Direct Expenditures). This form is at www.ethics.state.tx.us/forms/pac_E.pdf on our website. Any political activity disclosed on a special pre-election report must be disclosed again on the next required campaign finance report.

ELECTRONIC FILING. Campaign finance reports must be filed electronically unless you qualify for the statutory exemption. All filers MUST use the latest version of the software, version 3.4.5, or you will not be able to submit your report. The software will be available September 24, 2012. For information on installing the software and obtaining the required password, see www.ethics.state.tx.us/whatsnew/elf_filing_info.htm on our website. NOTE: When you file electronically, you should wait for a confirmation number. If you do not get a confirmation number, the report has NOT been filed. We encourage you to upgrade as early as possible so that if you experience any problems, our technical support staff will be able to assist you.

LATE FILING PENALTY. The minimum late-filing penalty for a monthly campaign finance report is $500.
